Re: Our File # VA-499

Dear Sir:

This letter is to advise you than an agent of the Wisconsin Department of Justice, Division of Criminal Investigation, recently discovered gambling paraphernalia while conducting a routine inspection of a licensed establishment in your county. These items were receipted and have been seized as contraband in accordance with Section 968.10(4), 968.13 and 968.18 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

Although possession of these items is a violation of Chapter 945 of the Wisconsin Statutes, we do not intend to seek a criminal complaint at this time. If future violations are detected at this establishment, we will be forced to re-evaluate our position in this regard. We do feel, however, that you should be informed of these violations when they do occur.

A copy of this letter is being directed to the local licensing board so that this information may be filed and taken into consideration by them when this license comes before them for renewal.

We are also directing a copy to the responsible local law enforcement agency to make them aware of this situation so that they may take appropriate action to insure that violations of this nature do not reoccur.

District No. S.A.S.

REPORT

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 28, 19 72

In the matter of CASINO STEAK HOUSE, 634 NORTH FIFTH STREETTo FLOYD ENGBRETSONCAPTAIN OF POLICE

Sir:

On Thursday, September 28, 1972, members of this squad received information from an anonymous informant regarding an incident that occurred at EDDIE CARROLL's CASINO STEAK HOUSE, 634 North Fifth Street.

The informant states that in the week of August 27, 1972, a group of seven (7) men entered the Casino, at which time the informant states that AUGUST PALMISANO, who was one of the group, threatened EDDIE CARROLL to stay in line. The group was apparently mad because they felt that EDDIE CARROLL had "set up" SAM CEFALU through his (Carroll's) recent testimony in the Grand Jury. The group also wanted to see what TED BEAVER looked like as they feel the same way about him. TED BEAVER operates "BEAVER's DEN" located in the lower level of the Casino Steak House.

On Monday, September 4, 1972 at about 1:30 A.M., a group of five (5) persons entered the Casino, including AUGUST PALMISANO. The subjects talked to EDDIE CARROLL for a short time, then AUGUST PALMISANO pulled out a revolver and fired five shots into the North wall of the barroom area. The informant adds that four shots were fired into the Northeast area of the barroom and one shot was fired into the Northwest side of the room. After the shooting, all the subjects left the bar. The gun used, according to the informant, was either a .32 or .38 caliber revolver.

The informant states he will attempt to learn the names of the other persons involved in the incident; also the nature of the threat given to Eddie Carroll.

Respectfully submitted,

14. Facts of Complaint

On June 30, 1978, at 8:53 a.m., an explosion occurred in the basement parking lot of 1319 North Jackson Street, Milwaukee. This explosion severely damaged an automobile parked in stall 33 of this basement garage and in doing so caused the death of the automobile owner, Mr. AUGUST S. PALMISANO. The Milwaukee Fire Department was contacted regarding this explosion and went directly to the scene. Firefighters, upon entry to the basement garage area of this three story apartment building found the basement fully charged with smoke. Firefighters eventually got to the central region of the garage and found that an automobile, a 1977 Mercury four door Sedan was on fire and that a victim was contained therein. After the fire was put out Milwaukee Fire Department requested investigation by the Wisconsin Arson Bureau as it appeared this fire and explosion was caused by some type of bomb device.

At 9:12 a.m., this request was received by the Wisconsin Arson Bureau and Deputy Fire Marshals Kermit R. Krupka and Gerald G. Haffner were assigned to commence a bomb scene investigation.

At 9:30 a.m., DFM Krupka arrived at the bomb scene in Milwaukee. Krupka found that detectives and police officers of the Milwaukee Police Department were already at the scene. Immediately thereafter DFM Haffner arrived and found that approximately 25 fire department personnel were in the basement area near the point of explosion, that being the 1977 Mercury four door Sedan parked in stall 33. DFM Haffner and DFM Krupka took over control of the scene, that being the entire lower level of this apartment building structure. DFM Haffner and DFM Krupka were advised by Lieutenant Perlewitz, of the Milwaukee Police Department Detective Bureau that he was putting Detective Edward Sharon in charge of this crime scene upon Detective Sharon's arrival at a later time. In the meantime, DFM Haffner and DFM Krupka cleared out all unnecessary personnel from the Milwaukee Police and Fire Departments. At approximately 10:00 or 10:10 on the same morning, Detective Edward Sharon arrived at the crime scene and immediately assumed control of the crime scene. Certain pieces of evidence were noted to Detective Sharon. DFM Krupka during this time period took 50 photographs with the departmental Canon, model FTb camera, on Vericolor II film. These 50 pictures were taken to the New Berlin Regional Crime Laboratory for processing. DFM Haffner during the initial stages of the Milwaukee Police Department's investigation took three water samples, one at the seat of the explosion in the left front engine compartment of the 1977 Mercury, one in the region of the west half of the garage, centrally located and immediately adjacent to a sewer which was draining water away from the explosion seat and the third water sample taken on the east central location of this garage where a second sewer was draining water away from this crime scene. These water samples were taken in efforts to submit these to the crime laboratory to find any residues of explosives used for this bomb.

During the investigation DFM Krupka, while taking numerous photos of the explosion scene, observed an alligator clip which was on the floor of the garage in stall 36. In viewing the alligator clip it was determined by DFM Krupka that this alligator clip was probably involved in the explosive device used on the 1977 Mercury four door sedan. This alligator clip was left at the point it was found and it was photographed by DFM Krupka. This noted piece of evidence was then advised to Detective Sharon of the Milwaukee Police Department. Prior to any determinations by any Milwaukee Police Department personnel, DFM Krupka determined that the seat of this explosion had occurred on the left side of the vehicle on the engine compartment side of the fire wall. Damage was determined to be extensive to the vehicle, motor, transmission and component parts. This determination was given to Detective Sharon upon his assumption of the crime scene control on behalf of the Milwaukee Police Department.

Detective Weiskirch had removed an automobile license plate from the scene of the explosion prior to the fire marshals arrival. DFM Krupka later found this license plate, Wisconsin 1979 registration, K84 442 to be listed to a 1977 Mercury four door owned by AUGUST S. PALMISANO, 5358 North Kent, Whitefish Bay, 53217. This license plate was issued on 05-16-78. DFM Krupka further determined that the ID number for this automobile was 7Z62S565468.

When it was learned by the two fire marshals that the bomb squad of the Milwaukee Police Department was going to commence a fire scene search and would pick up all the relevant pieces of material which existed throughout the garage from this explosion, DFM Haffner and DFM Krupka discontinued any investigation except to assist Detective Sharon with advice. DFM Krupka gave information regarding the parts of the automobile which were in the engine compartment area of the automobile. DFM Krupka also assisted Detective Sharon in naming the nomenclature of the parts which were scattered throughout the garage. DFM Haffner assisted Detective Sharon by advising the investigator from the Medical Examiners office that the deceased could remain in a position of repose in the automobile for a period of time until the bomb scene investigation was completed. The Medical Examiners office wished to take the body immediately but later recanted their request when found that numerous parts of the automobile fire wall and steering column rested on the deceased, whose body was in the remains of the front seat which was now in the back seat of the automobile.

On July 5, 1978, DFM Haffner received information from Detective James Koepke of the Milwaukee Police Department Detective Bureau that he was presently assigned to the investigation and that he would be in contact with the Wisconsin Arson Bureau regarding the crime scene investigation carried out.

DFM Haffner, at a later date took the three sealed water samples to the New Berlin Regional Crime Laboratory where they were submitted for analysis with the Chem-Physics Department under the control of Dr. Kent Oaks.

In conclusion, DFM Haffner and DFM Krupka concurred on the opinion that this violent explosion and resulting fire to the 1977 Mercury parked in stall 33 in the basement level of 1319 North Jackson Street in Milwaukee was caused by a high yield explosive device mounted next to the fire wall on the left lower side in the engine compartment. Further that this high yield explosive device was somehow wired to the ignition system of this 1977 Mercury by unknown persons. Further that the triggering of this ignition system by the victim, Mr. AUGUST S. PALMISANO, caused the device to ignite resulting in an explosive force being created at the seat of this explosion. The explosion caused the fire wall and steering assembly and dashboard on the left driver's side to tear and explode in a northerly direction towards the rear of the car. In its path immediately in the front seat was the victim in the driver's seat. The force caused the driver's seat backward to a position partially on top of the rear seat immediately behind the driver's seat. Further conclusions were that the shreading effects of the explosion, which was a sharp report rather than a slow heating report, caused a portion of the left corner of the motor block to be torn away from the engine and further that the hood and fenders of the front end of this automobile were shreaded and scattered over an area of about 50 feet. The flight of this shreaded parts of the front end of this automobile were impaired by the concrete ceiling walls and floor of this building. Further shrapnel effects caused by the materials being exploded away from the seat of the explosion shrapnelized and went through water pipes immediately above the point of origin, through automobiles on the sides of this explosion and gouged concrete near the front of this vehicle. Further force created by the explosion bent outward the large overhead door on the west wall of this garage, and popped the sun roof on other automobiles parked near by. The implosion created by the force of this explosion caused gas tank lids to pop open and other glass in windows to be pulled outward. Furthermore, that portions of the electric system of this automobile were scattered in a direction westward from the seat of the explosion and with parts not usually found under the hood of a 1977 Mercury automobile. DFM Haffner and Krupka controlled the fire scene and explosion seat for a period of 30 minutes until the arrival of "Bomb Expert" from the Milwaukee Police Department who then assumed command on the assignment of Lieutenant of Detectives Perlewitz of the Milwaukee Police Department. DFM Haffner and DFM Krupka took evidence consisting of 50 photos and three water samples from the crime scene and pointed out numerous other pieces of evidence to the bomb expert from the Milwaukee Police Department, however, none of these other pieces of evidence were taken by the Wisconsin Asson Bureau.

This investigation, under the command of Lieutenant of Detectives Perlewitz, was to be controlled by the Milwaukee Police Department and information from the Lieutenant Perlewitz advised that the investigation would be carried out to its entirety by the Milwaukee Police Department.

At 9:30 A.M. on Friday, June 30, 1978, Deputy Fire Marshal Kermit R. Krupka was dispatched to the scene of a bomb detonation in a garage at 1319 N. Jackson Street, Milwaukee.

Investigation revealed an explosive device was placed in the engine compartment of a 1977 Mercury 4 Dr. Sedan owned by August Palmisano. The bomb exploded ~~XXXXXX~~ after the owner turned on the ignition. The bomb appears to have been wired to the ignition system of the vehicle. A alligator clip was found on the garage floor in stall #36. Said alligator clip is not a part of the damaged vehicle, which was in stall #33. The seat of the explosion was on the left side of the vehicle on the engine compartment side of the fire wall. Damage was extensive to the vehicle, motor, transmission and component parts.

50 pictures were taken of the bomb scene and taken to the New Berlin Regional crime laboratory for processing. A diagram of the basement garage was made by Deputy Krupka with a list of all the vehicles parked in the garage and their respective stall positions at the time of the explosion.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case: On Tues., 7-11-78, we contacted the son of the above deceased, namely John PALMISANO regarding the 17 checks that were in the possession of George KELEPOURIS.

Mr. Kelepouris had over $9,000.00 in business checks with the signature of August PALMISANO.

Mr. Kelepouris had received these checks supposedly from Mr. Palmisano before his death. Kelepouris re-endorsed the checks, and attempted to put them in his accounts at the M & I Bank, but, the the signature on the checks is not that of August Palmisano. The document examiner checked various handwriting and said there was a similarity between August Palmisano's signature and his son John Palmisano. We had John Palmisano look at the ~~checks~~. He knows the checks and knows of the connection of George Kelepouris with the checks as he seen the checks. John stated that he did where these checks came from and have new checks made out and have them paid to the order of him.

As to being the executor of the estate, John Palmisano informed us that he does not know who the executor is. He believes his mother possibly will be the executor. He is only interested in continuing the business, namely the August Palmisano fruit business and tavern business, which is in his name now. He is only operating on a limited amount of capitol which was placed into the

I conducted a re-examination of the questioned documents listed in my original supplementary report dated July 10th, 1978. Said examination consisted of using copies of original documents and comparing same with known handwriting of the son of the deceased one, John August PALMISANO w/m [REDACTED] B of I # 144214. Due to the fact that the original documents are unavailable for examination, I cannot render a positive conclusion in this matter, however with the similarities noted between the known writings and the questioned endorsement writings, I would state that there is a high probability that said writings were authored by John PALMISANO. Known writings consisted of the 1976, 1977, & 1978 Alcoholic Beverage License Applications which were obtained from City Hall.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Wednesday, 7/12/78, we were instructed by Detective Lt. Thomas PERLEWITZ to re-contact George KELEPOURIS, who was in possession of $9,077 worth of forged checks in the name of August PALMISANO. In reference to previous reports, George Kelepours had informed Detectives James KOEPKE and Douglas PAULOS that he received the checks the day before Palmisano was murdered from August Palmisano himself for a debt due him by August Palmisano. We were to inform Kelepours that the endorsee of August Palmisano was a forger and to find out whether the information that he did give us in reference to where he got the checks was true.

We contacted George Kelepours, date, and informed him that the signature of August Palmisano was a forgery, that the son of the deceased, John PALMISANO, did not sign these checks. George Kelepours still maintained the same story that August Palmisano had given him these checks for a debt the day before the murder, and that George had tried to cash these checks, re-endorsing them himself, but the banks would not accept same. Mr. Kelepours informed us that he has since contacted John Palmisano and that John Palmisano is making these checks good for him. In fact, Mr. Kelepours states he already has half the money, and he knows that John Palmisano is going to the various business places named on these checks to return the checks and to have new checks made out to himself, in this way, paying back the money to George Kelepours. George Kelepours states he was under the impression that these checks had

We checked with one of the subscribers, a business client of the Palmisano produce; namely, Masonic Home in Dousman. We talked to the secretary, Mr. Doyme INMAN, who informed us that John Palmisano had been out to the Masonic Home and has in his possession one of these checks signed by August Palmisano. He had been planning on returning this check to the Masonic Home for them to make out a new check to him so that he could maintain his business. Also, Mr. Inman informed me that John Palmisano has been trying to maintain the same custom his father had in the produce business, although the Masonic Home informed me that they were no longer going to do business with John Palmisano. They have another company in mind; in fact, they placed an order with this other produce company. They are very surprised to see that John Palmisano delivered this produce order to them in his own truck, although it is not uncommon for the Commission Row people. If an order is placed with one produce company, another produce company may make the delivery, although they do not make the same amount of money on the delivery as if they had the account themselves. I explained this matter to Mr. Inman and he understands this. I also informed him that if there seems to be any high-pressure salesmanship or threats made by the Palmisano people to maintain his produce business, he should contact our department.

Palmy's Tavern on the morning of the homicide of the above complainant. After that date, both Winters and his brother had disappeared, and no one knew where they were. Winter's brother's name is Robert.

When interviewed, L. G. Winters was very cooperative and stated that on the morning that the murder took place, he and his brother arrived in front of Palmy's Tavern at approximately 4:00 AM. It is their custom to arrive this early to seek permission from the drivers to unload their trucks and in this way, earn a living. He stated that on that day, they knew nothing of the murder until they heard about it later that afternoon. They saw no suspicious persons or cars or anyone unknown to them in the area of Palmy's Tavern that morning.

On Saturday morning, ~~6-30-78~~ ⁷⁻¹⁻⁷⁸, Winters stated that he and his brother, Robert, were again seated in their car in front of Palmy's Tavern. They had arrived there at about 6:30 AM. At this time, they saw

On Thurs., July 6, 1978, at 6AM, we attempted to locate one L.G. WINTERS at his last known residence 3257 N. 9th St. L.G. WINTERS may be the owner of a red Cadillac automobile seen parked in close proximity to the victim's auto after tavern closing time on Fri., June 30, 1978.

At the N. 9th St., address, we received no answer after continuous knocking on the front door. The residence is a two-family home. We then proceeded to the rear door and awoke the 2d floor tenant, a black female who would not give us her name. She did inform us that she had just moved into the second floor residence and knows nothing of any men living downstairs. She said there is a woman living downstairs named CRUSOE and that this female is pregnant. The upstairs tenant said that she did not remember seeing any red Cadillac parked on the rear lot or elsewhere around this home. She denied knowing anyone named WINTERS and can offer no further information regarding the tenants at 3257 N. 9th St.

At 6:20AM, we proceeded to Palmy's Tavern, 346 N. Broadway, and interviewed the bartender on duty, a John AIELLO. We went there to locate Chuck COLOSO, a driver for PALMISANO's produce delivery service. AIELLO said that COLOSO should have been in to start work at 6AM, and could not think of any reason why he did not report on time.

While talking to AIELLO, the telephone rang and after AIELLO completed his phone conversation, he informed us that the person calling was COLOSO, and that COLOSO had asked if there was anyone at the

We again interviewed AIELLO at 7:10AM, and he could not imagine why COLOSO did not appear as he said he would, and could not think why COLOSO would fear talking to Police Officers.

We left the Detective Bureau telephone number with AIELLO and he promised that he would instruct COLOSO to call the Day Shift Detectives involved in this investigation and present himself for an interview regarding the checks he may have had in the cigar box on the back bar, which was taken in the recent burglary of Palmy's Tavern.

We also interviewed AIELLO regarding L.G. WINTERS and his red Cadillac, and AIELLO said that L.G. and Robert WINTERS, twin brothers, had not been seen by him on the street for the past 3 or 4 days.

AIELLO thought their absence was unusual, and he related that on Wed., July 5, 1978, he overheard customers in the tavern mention that L.G. WINTERS and his brother, Robert, had gone out of town on vacation.

AIELLO does not have any more information regarding the WINTERS brothers, as he only sees them unloading trucks during the day. They do not frequent the tavern when they are working and he has no idea of their current whereabouts, or who any of their close friends in the area might be. AIELLO cannot imagine

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Thurs., July 6, 1978, at 1:55AM, at Palmy's Tavern, 346 N. Broadway St., we interviewed the victim's son, John PALMISANO, regarding his observations of a red Cadillac Fleetwood allegedly seen near the victim's automobile on Fri., June 30, 1978, just after tavern-closing time. We showed photos of L.G. and Robert WINTERS, twin brothers, PALMISANO readily identified the WINTERS brothers as being truck unloaders in the 300 block of N. Broadway St. He does not know them to drive a red Cadillac Fleetwood, but admittedly, has never seen them in any automobile. He does remember, in the past, seeing a red Cadillac parked in the 200 block of E. St. Paul Ave., but never connected that automobile with the WINTERS brothers.

Regarding the events in the early morning hours of Fri., June 30, 1978, he recalls that his father, the victim, came to the tavern between 10:30PM and 11PM, 6-29-78, and remained inside until he left with his son, John PALMISANO, at 2:20AM, 6-30-78. A short time prior to the 2AM closing deadline, John PALMISANO did see one of the WINTERS brothers (he is not sure which one) standing under the canopy of the produce house located just south of the tavern on the east side of the street. He has seen this individual there many times in the past and knows him to be a laborer who free-lances and unloads produce trucks. John PALMISANO did not see a red automobile parked near his own car, which was parked on the east side of N. Broadway in the 300 block in front of the tavern, nor did he see that red automobile parked in the 300 block of E. St. Paul Ave., which is on the north side of the tavern. He remembers that his father's automobile was positioned approximately 3 parking spaces to the east of N. Broadway, on St. Paul, south side of the street, and a large produce truck with a yellow box on the rear, was in front of his father's car, and another produce cargo truck with "Crazy Jim" posters, was parked behind his father's car. He is positive he did not see a red Cadillac in the vicinity of his father's automobile. He relates that both he and his father were on friendly terms with the WINTERS brothers, and in the past, upon exiting the tavern at 2AM, or shortly thereafter, he would see the WINTERS brothers standing outside on N. Broadway St., waiting for trucks to arrive. When they left the tavern, he and his father would jokingly tell the WINTERS brothers to watch the tavern after they left, as in the past, a window on the west side of the tavern had been smashed. John PALMISANO does not believe that either of the WINTERS brothers was actually in the tavern on Thursday evening, June 29, 1978, or early Friday morning, June 30, 1978, but he does not discount that as a possibility. He thinks they might possibly have entered the tavern to have a soda, but he does not specifically recall them being inside. He said that the only relationship between the WINTERS brothers and his father, August PALMISANO, was of a passing nature, as the WINTERS brothers had been working on N. Broadway St. for several years. He knows of no animosity existing between his father and the WINTERS brothers.

John PALMISANO does not suspect the WINTERS brothers of any involvement in this offense, and repeated that his father was not in any sense a "close friend" of the WINTERS brothers, but met them only in the course of his employment as a tavern owner.

He was sought for questioning because in the past, he has been arrested with numerous sticks of dynamite in his possession. However, when we arrived at that address, we were met by his wife, Kathleen Marie VICK, nee ANCLAM, dob [redacted], living at same address, phone no. 645-9779. She is the present owner and operator of an antique store known as Pegasus located at the front of her residence at 1123 W. She had no idea as to what time he would arrive at 31st and Wisconsin or what time he would be home. She did say, however, that when he did come home, she would notify our department so that an interview with him could be made.

While at the scene, these detectives observed eight pots of soil with marijuana plants growing in it just next to a concrete wall or fence separating the property from the alley. The narcotics squad was notified, Detective O'BRIEN took care of the investigation and ordered Kathleen VICK to the D.A.'s office on Tuesday, 7/18/78. He suggested that Kathleen bring her husband along with her at the time.

I made Vick appear at his protection officer's office and I interviewed him regarding his cooperation with August Palmieri. It is reported to me that he never knew August Palmieri but heard of him. It seemed any contact with Palmieri or anyone with whom he had contact was not a person August Palmieri is no protection officer. I made Vick was very uncooperative and of it seemed from the cooperation of the Palmieri the protection officer he would have told me. Mr. Palmieri informed me that they would be very difficult to deal with and because of the fact that Vick would not talk even if he knew something he was reluctant to go there.

On Tuesday, August 1, 1978, we were assigned follow-up investigation to re-interview a Stanley Joseph NAVARRE, W/M, 32 yrs., dob [REDACTED]

of 811 E. Pleasant St.

He was originally interviewed on July 16, 1978 by Detective Emil Markovic of Squad 102-Days.

We interviewed him at the International House of Pancakes, 3200 blk. of N. Oakland Ave., at 5:50PM. Our interview was regarding some of the statements he made that were found in the supplementary report filed by Detective Emil Markovic. During our interview he was very upset and afraid that someone would see him talking to us, stating that he did not wish to go to the East Side to speak to us, did not wish to go to the Police Station and that is why we met him at the International House of Pancakes in the 3200 blk. of N. Oakland Ave.

He stated in regard to the statements made to Detective Markovic, he stated that two days after the death of August PALMISANO he got drunk each day because he was very upset, as he was such a close friend of August PALMISANO. He stated while he was drinking he had been to several taverns on the East Side and made some remarks in a drunken condition and stated he would get even. He stated he probably talked too much and that is why he believes that he may be in danger, himself. He stated he had no idea how he could get even for the death of August PALMISANO but felt that he, himself, is in very great danger, and infact, checks

On Tues., Aug. 1, 1978, we attempted to interview a James JENNARO, a well-known figure in Milwaukee's Italian-American community, whose name has appeared in many criminal investigations in our city.

We first attempted to contact him at his residence, 1570 N. Prospect Ave., #907, and we learned from the manager that JENNARO is seldom there. In the evenings, he stated, JENNARO is usually at his place of employment, Sally's Steak House, located in the Knickerbocker Hotel, where he is the manager.

We then went to Sally's Restaurant, 1028 E. Juneau, and there talked to James JENNARO. He was very friendly, admitted he knew why we wanted to talk to him, and indicated to us that many persons in the Italian-American community in Milwaukee were very disturbed by the demise of August PALMISANO. JENNARO also stated that he himself knew PALMISANO for many years, mostly from PALMISANO's patronage of Sally's Restaurant; however, JENNARO knew him before that, in the "commission row" days, he stated, from Palmy's Tavern. JENNARO said that PALMISANO would come to Sally's every day for lunch at noon, and in fact, was there several days prior to his death.

Sally PAPIA was also present and she stated basically the same thing that JENNARO had, i.e., she mostly knew PALMISANO from her restaurant operation. She claimed she had nothing to do with him per-

Both PAPIA and JENNARO stated that, regarding PALMISANO's death, they had no information that could aid us in clearing this offense.

I then led the conversation into a general discussion of the FAZIO family, as on today's date, Investigator Warren MOLBERG of the FBI held a meeting with us in the Detective Bureau during which he told us that Frank BALISTRERI went to see John FAZIO at his downtown health spa a day after the PALMISANO murder. BALISTRERI reportedly indicated to FAZIO that he wanted FAZIO to contact his brother, Jimmy FAZIO in Florida and have Jimmy come to Milwaukee as BALISTRERI wanted to see him. John FAZIO did as he was requested, and Jimmy FAZIO arrived in our city on about July 14, 1978, and in fact, was seen at the Marc Plaza Hotel. He was apparently making arrangements for the sale of several of the FAZIO holdings in our city, one being the old "Casino" on 5th St., the old FAZIO restaurant on Jackson St., and also, the "Iron Horse" restaurant on Port Washington Rd. Jimmy FAZIO was also seen several times with Frank BALISTRERI at "SNUG'S" Restaurant on N. Prospect Ave. FAZIO's visit seemed to be connected with some legitimate business, but in a previous interview, I, Det. Koepke, talked to John FAZIO (apparently it was after the BALISTRERI visit to him) and FAZIO did not mention this matter to dropping down to the floors of apt # 235. Mr. Swann then notified the property manager Mr. William Shea who in turn called our department. Mr. Swann informed us that he replaced the lock on Palmans apartment the day after the murder and they haven't let anyone into the apartment without a court order for they are awaiting a release from the estate of Palmans and the attorneys for told the Palmans estate and Mr. Swann Villers are taking care of the matter.

From evidence at the scene it appears that someone climbed up the rear terrace on the North side of the building and then opened the window which by terrace door and turned on the air conditioner between Friday 8-11-28 10⁰⁰pm to Saturday 8-12-28 6⁰⁰pm and then left via the same way. Because the apt door was still double locked.

The apartment is fully furnished and there are numerous closets in the dresser in the bedroom and it doesn't appear that anything has been removed from the apartment.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Monday, October 9, 1978, at 1:45 P.M., I received a telephone call from a male caller who refused to disclose his identity. He indicated that he had some information that may be in connection to the murder of one August Palmisano. The caller reports that he received information that a man checked into the Juneau Apartments located at 1009 N. Jackson Street, Building B, Suite 201, shortly before the murder of August Palmisano. The subject who checked in used the name of Michael Block. Since the Palmisano murder, the subject Michael Block had not returned to his apartment and left behind in his apartment in Juneau Village items of some value including an expensive electric razor and some items of wearing apparel. For this reason, the subject reports that he passed the information on to us believing that there may be a connection with said murder and the subject Michael Block.

Explain in detail what work was done, ^{at the case:} On Tuesday, 8/22/78, at approximately 10:45PM, we proceeded to the Under The Bridge

Tavern located at 1758 North Water Street to make a follow up investigation into the Palmisano Homicide.

Upon our arrival we interviewed the bartender, Thomas P. MURRAY, of 3327 N. Bartlett Avenue, W/M, bn [REDACTED] age 29, no home phone. Upon questioning him rather he had any information which might be helpful to our investigation of the August Palmisano homicide, he related the following.

He stated that he has been only working at the tavern for approximately the last two months but that the present owner, a John A. EIDENSHINK, Class B license #1086 is presently the owner of the tavern and has owned it for approximately the last two years. He further stated that the owner, John, on occasion has told him that approximately two years ago he was involved in an argument with August Palmisano over him telling Augie to take the coin operated amusement machines out of his tavern. Mr. Murray further stated that John told him that after Augie removed the machines from the tavern premises, that Augie had threatened him. He further states that he, himself, has never seen August Palmisano in person during the time he has worked at the tavern. He could offer no further information which might be helpful to our investigation at this time.

OFFENSE MURDER (EXPLOSIVES)

Reported by: PALMISANO, August

Reported for: HIMSELF

Address where offense occurred: (basement garage) 1319 N. Jackson St.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

In regards to the murder of August PALMISANO, I, Det. Neil Zuehlke, interviewed one Richard CZARNECKI, previous owner of Palmy's Bar, when it was known as "Ritchie's on Broadway." My conversation was held while off-duty, and at this time, CZARNECKI volunteered information regarding this offense.

He stated that on the morning of June 30, 1978, August PALMISANO was not driven home by his son, John PALMISANO; rather, August PALMISANO went to some unknown business establishment and drank with a friend for approximately 3 1/2 to 4 hours. After drinking with this friend, August PALMISANO went to "commission row" on N. Broadway St., and purchased fruit and vegetables from an unknown produce business in that area. After making the purchases about 5:30 to 6AM, June 30, 1978, he proceeded home.

Richard CZARNECKI stated to me that he wished his name left out of any investigation regarding this information. He explained that he knew many friends of PALMISANO and expressed some concern about the 'complications' that could arise if it were known that he, CZARNECKI, was involved in this investigation.

Richard CZARNECKI also elaborated on the painting located in the apartment of August PALMISANO, which showed a likeness to Vincent MANIACI in prison with August PALMISANO standing outside the jail cell. CZARNECKI said that this painting was done by a female artist, unknown to him at this time, although the artist was referred to PALMISANO by the owner of the "Chez Paul" restaurant in Thiensville,

Wis. According to CZARNECKI, the painting does not hold any particular meaning or message, but rather, was done in jest and in fact, he said, MANIACI and PALMISANO laughed over the painting when it was completed. CZARNECKI did state however, that the painting ceased to be a laughing matter after MANIACI was in fact sent to prison, an eventuality MANIACI did not foresee at the time. A close likeness of this painting is in the possession of Myron JENNARO, a produce merchant on N. Broadway St.

Again, according to CZARNECKI, Vince MANIACI and August PALMISANO were the closest of friends, and any speculation that there was friction between the two men should be discounted.

Address where offense occurred: (basement garage) 1319 N. Jackson St. Date of Offense 6-30-78

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Wed., Aug. 23, 1978, in response to a request from Early Shift Detectives to interview the licensee of the ^{2ND} "Beneath the Bridge" tavern, 1758 N. Water St., we contacted John A. EIDENSHINK, W/M, [REDACTED] of 1129 N. Jackson St., #1001, (278-0444). Mr. EIDENSHINK related the following.

^{2ND} He has been the licensee of the "Beneath the Bridge" tavern since Mar., 1975. Just prior to that time, he stated, he, along with a Richard HOLTZ, who is the current owner of the Villard Pub, and August PALMISANO had an agreement to go into the tavern business together, at 1758 N. Water St. It was further agreed that EIDENSHINK would put up the major share of the money for remodeling, and a short time later (prior to consummating the partnership), EIDENSHINK received word that PALMISANO and HOLTZ intended to use EIDENSHINK's name as licensee of the premises, but eventually would attempt to squeeze him out of business. EIDENSHINK then purchased the entire building and became sole owner. He stated that PALMISANO was not too happy with this plan, and did threaten to do him bodily injury (specifically, break his arms and legs), but EIDENSHINK stated that PALMISANO was known to "pop off", and was usually drunk when he made such threats. Mr. EIDENSHINK further stated that he had not seen PALMISANO for over two years, and said he was surprised when he heard of the bombing.

He went on to say that starting in about November of 1978 when Daniels would get high on cocaine he would tell her that he was involved in blowing up Palmarino. Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Fri., Mar. 9, 1979, at 11:35AM, we went to Palmy's Tavern, located at 346 N. Broadway.

At this time, we interviewed the son of the victim, John August PALMISANO, W/M, [REDACTED], who now resides at 1115 E. Wright St., (372-1719). At this time, we informed John PALMISANO that our Department had received information from several sources in Milwaukee that John had been making statements around town that Frank BALISTRERI is responsible for the death of August S.
PALMISANO. We told John that if this is true, and if he has information to that effect, he should tell us so we can make an investigation. At this time, John PALMISANO stated, "Wrong!
Your sources are full of shit! I didn't say nothing. I know better! I don't have time for that. I run this tavern, the produce company, and bought another tavern called Ferrara's. I work ninety hours a week." He then stated, "Look, if my dad knew anything, he never told me.
It's my opinion that he didn't tell us anything 'cause he didn't want me or the family to be involved. I'm just too busy for anything. I bought Ferrara's Tavern at 1501 N. Jackson St. about five weeks ago--it's a disco. I call it 'Jackson's Speakeasy.' It's starting to make money."

He went on to state, "Look. The Police aren't doing anything regarding my dad's death or the safe breakin that took place here. I don't even know what was in that safe!"

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

John PALMISANO then stated, "Someone broke into my dad's apartment about two weeks after my dad was killed, and took a forty-five caliber automatic and a thirty-eight caliber revolver. I know the guns were there because I saw them there about four days before he was killed. The manager of the apartment building told me that he saw my dad's apartment sliding windows open and then called me. I think the Police broke in because my dad had a list of all the people who owed him money. I found a piece of this list, which was torn off, in a jewelry box. The reason that I think the Police took the list is because a guy who owed my dad a hundred dollars told me that some Detectives questioned him regarding the hundred dollars that he owed my dad, and said that they got his name off of that list. This guy paid me the hundred dollars about four days before the Police questioned him. You guys better check with the Police Department."

John PALMISANO then stated, "Look. I'm not so dumb to make statements about Frank BALIS-TRIERI, because everything gets to him. He even knew I was buying Ferrara's place before I even purchased it. He gets to hear everything that goes on."

We then advised John that if he does hear anything regarding his father's death, he should contact the Detective Bureau so that we can investigate it in an effort to commence prosecution of this offense, as, regardless of what he might think, it is the Police Department's

Our informant went on to state that in the event MONTEY is questioned by officers, nothing should be revealed which would indicate where the information about MONTEY had come from because our informant fears MONTEY would realize the source of the information and he (our informant) would name of "Dick MONTAGE," (phonetic), but his information also indicates the subject may be going simply by the name of "Dick MONTEY."

Our informant further states that MONTEY is still at this home, using the "Three Sisters" Restaurant & Bar, located northeast of Athens, Wisconsin. MONTEY, at present, is living in northern Wisconsin, in a home behind the signs of contract killings for the mafia. Our source also reported that is responsible for the above-listed homicides which carried all of the a "hit man," for the Frank BALISTRERI "organization," and that MONTEY other sources concerning Richard MONTEY indicates that MONTEY is indeed of his life. Our informant states that the information he gathered from "other side" of the mafia, and that Richard MONTEY appeared to be in fear had with MONTEY, during which he was accused of being a "hit man" for the build. Our source states that his information is based on contact he has MONTEY, W/M, in his late forties or early fifties, 5'10" - 5'11", slender Our informant relates that the suspect in these offenses is a Richard in our city.

On Thurs., Mar. 22, 1979, we received information from a source who wishes to remain anonymous, regarding a possible suspect in the murders of August MANIACI (M-1162) and August S. PALMISANO (M-1340), which occurred be killed by Richard MONTEY.

We checked with Detective Clerical Bureau and found that a "Richard MARITEY" is named on a reference card, "attempt to locate," dating from 1959. This card refers investigators to the "Richard MONTEY file"; there is no date of birth, but it does give the name of a Monroe FRALIX, Box 107, Boulder Junction, as the person inquiring about Richard MARITEY.

We checked with the B of I and our records show a Richard Gordon MONTEY, W/M, [REDACTED], having an arrest record from 6-5-48, for assault and battery, 11-7-53, for drunk, and 9-30-68, for a traffic offense.

We checked with the Motor Vehicle Division, and they have a Richard G. MONTEY on file, having a DOB of [REDACTED] residing at 1080 E. Milwaukee Ave., Oak Creek, Wis. He is described as 6', 195 lbs., brown hair, and blue eyes, glasses required.

It does not appear that the Richard MONTEY we have on record is the subject referred to by our informant.

We talked to Det. Lt. Thomas Perlewitz, who indicated that there was a Richard MONTEY, who was named in the investigations of these homicides, but that this individual was from Chicago, Illinois.

We will contact the local FBI to determine if the Richard MONTEY our informant is talking about and the Richard MONTEY possibly wanted in these investigations are one and the same individual.
